Royal Vacation offers a very flexible cancellation policy in case the government or the airline issues a travel warning from/to your departure country and destination. We, at Royal Vacation, prioritize your well-being and safety above all else and for that reason, we have adapted our cancellation policy to reflect our values.

In the event of this happening, we will be refunding you the amount paid for the tour package or in some cases your payment will be available as future travel credit and travel voucher that can be used towards any of the destinations we operate tours in. You have the flexibility to apply this amount towards new travel services booked within 12 months. Reservations will be adjusted to reflect these travel credits automatically. Only flights' cancellation/changing fees are charged, according to the airline's terms and conditions, and bank surcharges fees applied on the deposit amount paid.
